Dear Mr. Trimarco:

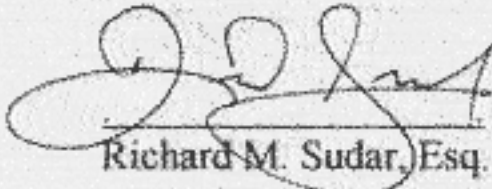

I hope all is well. I am writing this letter to say thank you once again and to tell you that without your help four young men would still would be facing rape charges and up to forty years in prison.

I have enclosed a copy of an article about the case from the L.A. Times in the event that you missed it. All of us as attorneys, as well as our clients and their families owe you a tremendous gratitude of thanks. Without your tireless efforts and phone calls to the District Attorney's Office, this result never would have been achieved; You always went the extra step.

Before we met, I knew that the District Attorney's Office trusted your findings above all others in your profession and viewed you as having unimpeachable integrity. What I did not, but now do, realize is how truly passionate you are about your work. I agree with you that helping achieve fairness and learning the truth, whatever that may be, are of utmost importance in maintaining the integrity of our criminal justice system. Individuals like you make that possible.

Thank you again for everything. Hope you have a happy and a healthy new year. I look forward to speaking with you soon.

Sincerely,

Richard M. Sudar, Esq.
