Dear Mr. Trimarco,

It is with the deepest appreciation that I write you to compliment you on the services you rendered our company recently.

We were faced with a potential loss in the $50,000 range due to the pilfering of our merchandise from a subcontractor. Our suspicions were that someone in their employ had surreptitiously taken the item, leaving everyone with the impression that it was inexplicably lost but, nonetheless, casting suspicion on all the employees and owners of that company. Unfortunately, mysterious disappearance is not a covered liability on either our insurance policy nor our subcontractors, so it would have been a debilitating financial blow to have had to absorb such a loss.

I turned to you for your professional advice as to how to handle this matter. After taking on the case you personally met with the employees and owners as a group, and then individually conducted polygraph examinations. You focused on the relevant information, and we felt assured that the situation was being handled in the best way possible under the circumstances, even though the possibility of recovery was slim. Happily, the item appeared one morning soon thereafter. It was a harrowing time, but our worries were finally put to rest.

I would be pleased to recommend your service to anyone who is in the unfortunate circumstance of requiring such expertise. Once again, I can't thank you enough.

Respectfully,

Robert Shaw, President
